

HOUDINI HIGH AT HIGHLIGHTS!

Last month, the Centre played host to the Montreal Highlights Festival's announcement of this year's performing arts section. Big deal, huh? Yup, VERY big deal because for the first time in its nine year history, a Segal Centre production will be the centerpiece of the Festival. That's right, this winter Houdini will literally be a highlight of the Montreal arts and culture scene and we couldn't be more proud to be partnering with Ernst & Young and the Festival in presenting this all new musical to Montreal.
